NON-AGGRESSION PACT WITH RUSSIA

According to Iraqi commercial circles, the Soviet Union is desirous of promoting commercial relations with Iraq as may appear from the contact of the Russian Consul in Baghdad with the DG of Date Board Association. This activity is not confined to Iraq alone as Egypt also has entered into an agreement with Russia for Trade exchange. Syria and Lebanon have also demonstrated such activity.

Foreign political sources in Damascus predict that Russia will shortly launch a peaceful campaign in the Middle East with the object of convincing the Arab States to maintain neutrality, adding that the Soviet Union may propose to the Arab States the conclusion of a non-aggression Pact in the event of a further deterioration of the international situation. This new Russian trend takes place before the ALPC meeting in Cairo. These sources say that the report of Arab diplomats in Moscow being approached on this matter have been confirmed. HE SHAKIR AL WADI INTERVIEWED

On the occasion of the 30th Anniversary of the Founding of the Iraqi Army, Az-Zaman interviewed HE (Shakir Al-Wadi. 425) Minister of Defense and Acting Minister for Foreign Affairs.

In reply to a question about the Iraqi Army, HE said that he is striving to strengthen the Army and increase its efficiency, as outlined in the Speech from the Throne. HRH himself is concerned with the welfare of the Army, he said.

HE denied rumors that Iraq has connected certain Eastern countries with the object of concluding a pact. This was also refuted by the Premier himself, he added.

Asked for his views about cooperation between the Arab States and the Oriental countries, HE said that this demands complete collaboration among the Arab States, and if cooperation among the Arab States and the Islamic countries and India is realized, it would be in the interest of all those countries.

Asked about American aid to Iraq, he said that this aid is still under consideration by the appropriate Iraqi authorities, adding "we like to make use of this aid and we are in great need of plain technical assistance which does not put us vis-a-vis commitments contrary to our prestige."

In a statement to the Arab News Agency, HE said that the Premier will attend the ALPC meeting in Cairo. The Committee in the first place, he continued, will discuss the attitude of the Arab States towards the prevailing international situation. Speaking about the Collective Security Pact, he said that the Arab States have agreed on the amendments proposed by Iraq, and expressed the hope that this Pact will lead to good results. He concludes that Iraq is very anxious to strengthen the bonds of brotherhood and to stand at one vis-a-vis the international developments. (Az-Zaman. 1/7)
